

I support the Indiana regulations regarding phone privacy and do not wish to have a more lax federal regulation. Prior to this my household was receiving 5-7 phone calls per day - often tying up my answering service for many minutes - in addition to disruptions when we were at home.